

QUICK GUIDE TO COMMON PLAGIARISM TYPES

B-TIC

PROFESSIONALISM SIMPLIFIED

Type	Type of Plagiarism
The Clone 	A Learner submitting word-for-word academic work of another as his / her own.
The Cut and Paste 	An academic work contains significant number of UNACKNOWLEDGED quotations in it.
The Hijack 	An academic work consists of hijacked ideas of some others. The key words and phrases “translated” but essentially similar or exact to the content of an unacknowledged source
Inaccurate Referencing 	An academic work is referenced (inaccurately) without <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. following rules of appropriate referencing style (Harvard OSCOLA) 2. indicating relevant secondary referencing and 3. any match between in-text and end-text references
The Patchwork 	An academic work accurately referenced however without <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. connective narrative 2. appropriateness, 3. relevancy 4. logical flow and 5. personal voice appropriate to the level

Note: Please refer to B-TIC Academic Misconduct Policy

info@b-tic.org

www.b-tic.org

B-TIC
PROFESSIONALISM SIMPLIFIED